

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM IN EXPERIMENTAL ECONOMICS 2024

Monday, March 18 th
8:25-8:55	Breakfast (A6-010)
8:55-9:00	Welcome
9:00-9:45	Lata Gangadharan	The gender leadership gap in competitive and cooperative institutions
9:45-10:30	Christian Thöni	Gender differences in preferences: means, variability, and malleability
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-11:30	Moritz Janas	Eliciting thresholds for interdependent behavior
11:30-12:00	Lina Lozano	Attribution of failure and success in strategic settings
12:00-12:30	Nikos Nikiforakis	Disparities in psychological traits and income: Race, ethnicity, and gender in the U.S.
12:30-14:00	Lunch (Torch Club)
14:00-14:10	Robert Stüber	Global study on economic behaviors and stereotypes
14:10-14:55	Jonathan Schulz	Norms and honesty: A cultural explanation for the gender equality paradox
14:55-15:40	Johannes Abeler	The effect of the social environment during childhood on preferences in adulthood
15:40-16:00	Break
16:00-16:45	Eugenio Proto	Intelligence and voting
16:45-17:30	Thomas Meissner	Debt aversion: Theory and measurement
18:00 onward	Dinner (Park Hyatt Abu Dhabi)
Tuesday, March 19 th
8:25-9:00	Breakfast (A6-010)
9:00-9:30	Andrzej Baranski	Prevalence and predictors of exclusionary behavior across 14 societies
9:30-10:00	Sanjeev Goyal	Experimental evidence on the relationship between network centrality and individual choice
10:00-10:30	Jeff Zeidel	A signaling game played by teams: Theory and experiment
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-11:30	Abigail Barr	Revolutions in the lab: An experimental identification of the effect of inequality on social instability
11:30-12:15	Maria Recalde	Early onset of gendered work assignments
12:15-13:00	John Duffy	Trade, Voting, and ESG Policies: Theory and Evidence
13:00 onward	Lunch (Torch Club, NYUAD) & social activity (tour to Louvre)

Location: New York University Abu Dhabi, Room A6-010

Organizers: Moritz Janas, Lina Lozano, Ernesto Reuben, and Robert Stüber